How the CIA May Control Michigan By Pat Foster

If James Douglas in his JFK and the Unspeakable is correct in his investigation that the CIA in conjunction with the Joint Chief's of Staff were directly responsible for JFK's assassination and coup d' tat, then each state would have CIA operatives directly running those states in key positions. I do not believe these operatives would be in the top job, because if there were problems, the top person could be cut leaving your operatives untouched. With those assumptions, I am going to try to prove Mr. Douglas's theory with facts.

On a macro basis, we know that Eisenhower warned of the "military, industrial complex" upon leaving office. From Douglas's book and those of other independent investigations, that was a warning the Kennedy should have heeded, and we are now facing the consequences of those actions. We have had a Congress that supposedly represents citizens, yet when it comes to war and the military budget, they all vote in unison to support it.

On a micro basis, we have local officials who all vote the same way, and that is exactly how they are told to vote. Not really a representative government, but one that is definitely controlled.

We have the legal branch of government that is told to "stand down" from investigating election fraud, and prosecutors locally, state, and federal that will not even do a thing with our complaints.

We have two people that we feel we can directly point to as possible CIA operatives.

The first is Brad Whitman, who is second in charge at the Michigan Bureau of Elections. His claim to fame came after we served our FOIA requests. He was the main person in charge of trying to keep us from seeing the ballots. He is second in charge, and avoids being photographed.

He meets our criteria for possible CIA operative.

The second is Don Daniels, the Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Grand Rapids office. A photograph of him was not found. He is their election specialist, and he probably stopped our complaint against the Saugatuck Township Clerk for destroying the ballots against the law before we could inspect them. We also filed a complaint with Margaret Chiara,

Brad Whitman & Chris Thomas

the then U.S. Attorney who was fired by U.S. Attorney General Gonzales in 2007. Ms. Chiara was first notified of her being fired in November, 2006 after we filed a complaint to her office regarding the local state authorities not enforcing their laws. A letter was written to Ira Demmar my investigative partner directly pointing to an “election specialist”, which we are told is Don Daniels, the man with no photographs. Shortly after her correspondence with us sending us to Michigan Bureau of Elections, which was part of our original complaint was like asking the fox to guard the hen house.

Both Mr. Whitman and Mr. Daniels hold very important positions that can keep the average person from ever getting on base. We may not have hit a home run, but we are certainly on base.
